

VFW Legislative Alert: Military Tuition Assistance Bill Passes Congress

Mar 21, 2013

The Military Tuition Assistance amendments passed both the House and Senate as part of the Continuing Resolution bill (H.R. 933) that will now fund the federal government moving forward. Thanks to all of you - our advocates - who contacted your legislators more than 14,000 times in support of this critical benefit. It is because of your relentless advocacy that our service members will now be able to receive tuition assistance which allows them to access the tools needed to continue their professional development within the military.
